

Ready for a long weekend Kenya?

A first in the business: a short trip to Kenya. Wake up with giraffes, lunch with the lions in The Masais Mara and enjoy the camp fire with stories for week at the amazing but lesser known Samburu National Reserve. The next morning you will have your last game drive, fly back to Nairobi and fly back home after a weekend like no other... And, don't say we didn't warn you, but you might want to come back for more (yes, that was our warning).

Friday

You arrive in Nairobi and we transfer you to a comfortable hotel in the outskirts.

Saturday

After breakfast we will transfer you to the airport for a one hour flight to one of the most spectacular wildlife reserves in the world: The Masai Mara. You will arrive around lunch time. Your first game drive, looking for animal on the savanna with your local wild life guide, is planned for the afternoon.

Sunday

After getting up in time (so you don't have to miss anything from early activity in the field)a cup of coffee or tea, you will be in the field and witness how the savanna wakes up. After lunch, you plane will be ready to fly you to one of the other jewels of this Classic Safari Destination: Samburu National Reserve. The Reserve is known for the the unique animals that can only be found in this area of the country: the gerenuk, the Grevy's Zebra, the Somali Ostrich, the Northern variety of the Oryx and the Reticulated Giraffe. You will arrive in the afternoon late afternoon so there well be time for an early exploration of the Reserve. You might be lucky to run into a cheetah.

Monday

You will get up in time for morning tea and coffee in order not to mis early activity in the field. After returning to the lodge. After lunch, you will have time to relax at the Swimming Pool: a good preparation for your last gamedrive in Samburu.If you like you might want to visit a traditional Samburu village. It's up to you. Your flight to historic Mount Kenya will be in the late afternoon.

Tuesday

After an optional gamewalk and a visit to the chimpanzees, you will have your last lunch in Kenya. After lunch, there is time to pack your bags, enjoy the swimming pool or go for a nature walk with one of the local nature guides. Your flight to Nairobi will be late afternoon, where you will have dinner in one of Kenya's game-restaurants. After dinner, you will be transferred to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport.
